Joe Hayward

Joe Hayward is delighted to have the opportunity to stand as your Conservative candidate in Worksop North East Ward. Joe, who lives in the centre of Worksop, is a firm believer that people have to take responsibility for their own communities. That's what brought him into local politics.

He believes that it's all about making a difference to people's quality of life and the environment in which they live. Although Joe is only in his twenties, he is already has significant political experience having previously been actively involved in both local and parliamentary elections.

Living in the town centre, Joe is very conscious of the problems of anti-social behaviour, vandalism and illegal parking. As a young man he knows that younger people are at more risk of violent crime than older people.

Like most young people Joe has had to learn the expensive realities of setting up home for himself. One significant element of any household budget is the cost of council tax.

He is proud to support Bassetlaw's Conservative-run Council which has one of the lowest council tax increases in the country.

He is an enthusiastic supporter of the Conservative policy of cutting council costs while maintaining the level of services to the public
